ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE'S RULING
SEEKING SUPPLEMENTATION TO THE UTILITY REFORM
NETWORK'S REQUEST FOR INTERVENOR COMPENSATION

The Utility Reform Network (TURN) filed a request for intervenor compensation on November 30, 2004. The request relates to TURN's work in Decision (D.) 02-10-020, D.03-10-088, A.04-02-063, D.04-07-036 and D.04-09-061. I direct that TURN supplement its request as set forth below. TURN's response will not reopen the period for comments on TURN's request.

TURN shall supplement the attachments to its request to break out its time in the following ways.

1. Provide a list of issues for each decision on which TURN prevailed (either before the ALJ, Assigned Commissioner or Commission).
  - a. Provide time records for issues on which TURN prevailed.

- b. Provide total time spent on issues on which TURN prevailed (by issue and overall).
  - c. Provide total dollar value, on the basis of requested hourly rates and time spent on issues on which TURN prevailed (by issue and overall).
- 2. Provide a list of issues for each decision on which TURN did not prevail (either before the ALJ, Assigned Commissioner or Commission).
  - a. Provide time records for issues on which TURN did not prevail.
  - b. Provide total time spent on issues on which TURN did not prevail (by issue and overall).
  - c. Provide total dollar value of time spent on issues on which TURN did not prevail (by issue and overall).

As used above, “prevail” means that a proposed or alternate decision adopted a contention or recommendation by TURN with request to a factual, legal, policy, or procedural issue.

Therefore, IT IS RULED that The Utility Reform Network shall supplement its intervenor compensation request in this proceeding as set forth above within 30 days of the date of this ruling.

Dated September 15, 2005, at San Francisco, California.
